Internet Safety Advocate
Norton

Marian Merritt is an Internet Safety Advocate and advisor for Norton. She offers consumers easy-to-understand advice on Internet safety - from how to avoid being a victim of identity theft to what parents need to know about cyberbullying.

Marian is the author of Norton's "Family Online Safety Guide," a free guide for parents and educators that focuses on age-specific solutions for protecting children online. She is also editor-in-chief of Norton's Family Resource website (www.norton.com/familyresource), which offers free tips, resources and information on a broad array of Internet security topics. On this site, consumers can submit technology-related questions to be answered by Marian, listen to podcasts and read columns about keeping safe on the Internet.

Marian has appeared on "Good Morning America," Family Circle and Parenting magazines to discuss Internet safety issues relevant to families. Additionally, when a virus or other cybercrime makes headlines, Marian contributes to national and regional TV, radio and print outlets covering the story to explain the threat and offer consumers practical advice.

Marian lives and works in Los Angeles, California.
